THE DAILY NEWS.

VOL. II. RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 28, 1873. NO. 161.

WARREN COURT.—The fall term of Warren Court convened on Monday, Judge Watts presiding. We did not hear the Judge's charge, but hear that it was in his Honor's usual "happy" style. The attendance Tuesday was quite large, the negroes, however, comprising the larger half of the audience—indeed, we don't remember to have ever seen any Court green or surrounding streets so thoroughly claimed by this dusky element, while the Court room itself was given over entirely to them, excepting the place occupied by the Bar and the Court.

The Raleigh Bar was represented by Messrs. Wm. R. Cox, B. F. Moore, F. H. Busbee, Jos. B. Batchelor, Wm. S. Mason, L. C. Edwards and W. P. Batchelor; the Franklin Bar by Messrs. J. J. Davis, C. M. Cook and W. K. Barham; the Granville Bar by Mr. Geo. Badger Harris, and the Warren Bar by Messrs. Wm. Eaton, H. A. Foote, Marmaduke Hawkins, C. A. Cooke B. F. Long and C. W. Spruill. We noticed in attendance Gen. M. W. Ransom, of Northampton.

The criminal docket contains only petty cases, though it is more than probable the recent poison case, in which a negro woman living near Ridgeway is charged with poisoning her husband, will have a hearing during the week. The civil docket is also said to be small.

The suit instituted by Hon. Josiah Turner against W. W. Holden, transferred to Warren, will have a hearing about the latter part of this week.

The town of Warrenton evidences but few signs of improvement. The old Brownlow Hotel, however, under the control of Mr. W. J. Norwood, is being overhauled, portions rebuilt and a third story added to the whole, which will render it not only commodious but decidedly comfortable, and will add attractions to Warrenton as a summer resort which Warrenton has wanted for many years past. The table of this hotel at present is well supplied, and under the personal supervision of Mrs. Norwood, the viands are sufficiently tempting to suit any taste.

The merchants of Warrenton wear cheerful faces, which we trust is at least an indication of good business.

The farmers of the surrounding section represent their crops as being in a most promising condition—it is not thought that the recent rains materially damaged the cotton crop.

HIGH SCHOOLS IN RALEIGH.—On yesterday we published a call for a meeting at Metropolitan Hall, on Monday evening, September 1st, at 8 o'clock, to take into consideration the establishment of one or more graded schools in this city for white males, which will supply a want of the most pressing and important nature. Now let us review this subject a little.

The NEWS has advocated the matter from its inception, and has received the encouragement of gentlemen in all professions to continue the crusade against ignorance, until we should have substantial fortresses for the dissemination of light and intelligence established in our midst.

The late Educational Convention held in this city, although it did not approach our expectations in many respects, nevertheless, we trust, left a favorable impression upon the minds of some gentlemen who seem to be active in this enterprise.

Besides this, the clergy have also taken up the cudgels, and we trust they will devote a special notice to this meeting, on Monday evening next, during the exercises of the approaching Sunday, because it is important that all classes of citizens be present on this occasion, and unite in the effort to establish educational interests in our midst on a sure, firm, progressive basis, and to encourage our moneyed men to subscribe liberally, if necessary, in the completion of this enterprise.

Five hundred substantial people are not too many to expect to be present on the evening of September 1st, and we therefore earnestly appeal to every one who can spare the time to do so, and put in his appearance at the designated hour.

The incalculable good which will flow from this movement, if successful, should lend enthusiasm to every father and mother who is a resident of our beautiful city. Raleigh is growing rapidly. She will soon become a populous and important city, as she is now a thriving centre of trade and commerce. The great drawback would be a lack of schools which would keep emigration away from our doors. This then is our opportunity. The iron is hot. Let every man strike a blow for the common good.

THE MAMMOTH BUILDING.—Col. Jno. D. Cameron, the editor of the Hillsboro Recorder, writing for his paper under the above caption says:

"The new building of Messrs. Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas, recently erected on Fayetteville street, is perhaps, the largest building of the kind in the State. This mammoth building is three stories high, two hundred and ten feet in length—extending across the block from Fayetteville street to Salisbury street—is thirty-two and a half in width, and, we are informed by the contractor, five hundred thousand bricks were used in the erection of the walls. This house was built expressly for the cotton trade, as all its arrangements and appointments show. The increasing business of these popular cotton merchants necessitated the construction of a more spacious building than the one they now occupy.

"Some idea may be formed as to what Raleigh is doing in the cotton line when we state that the single firm of Messrs. Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas handled last year more than ten thousand bales of cotton. One of the firm informs us that their large building just approaching completion would not have been large enough for the business of that year, and yet their business is steadily on the increase. Raleigh is something of a cotton market after all."

THAT CIRCUS.—It has already been announced that Haight & Co's. Great Eastern Circus will visit this city some time during October. This news has carried almost unspeakble bliss to the hearts of many of all ages and both sexes. Raleigh has ever delighted in circuses. The smell of the saw dust and a sight of the canvas never fails to have a magical effect in rousing this community from its lethargical indifference to passing events and giving to the public pulse a fever beat. It is true that some among us urge religious objections to these popular exhibitions, but to overcome these objections, these shows now-a-days have a moral department attatched, called menageries, to see which the scrupulous can go and forget to come out when the performances commence. We copy the following from a circular which has been sent us:

"Since last winter the Great Eastern has been augmented to treble its former proportions, and now it is unquestionably the grandest aggregation of Menagerie, Museum, Aviary, Circus, Hippodrome and Caravan in the world. Three elaborate Brass and Reed Bands in Golden Chariots; a new Mammoth Steam Piano, the music of which can be heard four miles; a grand gratuitous balloon ascension, and a gorgeous street pageant, with twenty ladies on horseback, with brilliantly costumed attendants; a long line of emerald and crimson vans, dens and tableaux cars have been added to the old attractions. The old idea of a single arenic performance is discarded, and now two arenas instead of one are used every day, requiring the use of nearly one hundred performers and two hundred horses. We come by railroad on our own special trains, drawn by four locomotives and one hundred cars, including sleeping and passenger coaches."

THE PRIMA DONNA OF NORTH CAROLINA.—The Piedmont Press of the 27th inst., in writing under the above heading, has the following to say:

"We enjoyed the rare pleasure last Wednesday evening of witnessing, at Salisbury, the performance of Miss Minnie Eddins and Miss Carrie Jenkins, two of North Carolina's gifted daughters, of whom we feel especially proud. Brother Bruner, of the Watchman, who possesses discriminating taste, and is ever averse to fulsome adulation, says: "The character of the music—its nigh order and exquisite performance—were alike a general surprise as gratifying to the audience as it was highly creditable to the young ladies." We pronounce the singing of Miss Eddins (Miss Jenkins did not sing) superb. The pieces were admirably rendered, evincing talent of the highest order. This amateur prima donna (possessing all the freshness and beauty of fourteen summers,) is a native of Cleaveland county, and is a pupil of Mr. Hobgood's school at Raleigh. Miss Jenkins, from Granville county, performs her part most exquisitely. These young ladies have most nobly devoted their vacation to the benevolent purpose of raising funds for the poor orphans at the Oxford Home.

This is accomplished by a series of concerts, given in the prominent towns along the lines of the railroads. With this noble charity in view, the public will certainly extend to them the most generous aid. Statesville, Newton, Hickory, Morganton and Asheville will be visited during the next two weeks—time will be announced. As their vacation is drawing near its close, they are compelled to forego the desire of visiting the inland towns.

SENSIBLE AND TRUE.—J. H. Mills, Esq., late of the Biblical Recorder, sends us the following card. We publish it with pleasure. In point of good sense and truth it can't be questioned. Here it is:

"ADVERTISE.—Several persons have requested me to aid them in securing teachers, and many teachers have written to me for situations. I advise them all to advertise their wants in the papers. Hundreds of school houses are standing empty for want of teachers, and yet many good teachers are out of employment. One school house has been turned into a factory, and another into a dwelling, because teachers could not be found. At the same time many teachers have gone to other callings for want of situations. The remedy for these evils is to advertise.

J. H. MILLS."

The Civil Service of Persia.

The civil service system of Persia has just been strikingly illustrated in an occurrence related by the Tabriz correspondent of the Levant Herald. It appears that the Russians since their successes in Central Asia have liberated the Persians existing in slavery in Turkestan, and restored them to their homes, the Russian Government bearing the cost of their journey. Some hundreds of these poor creatures, principally victims of the Persian fiasco of 1860, when twenty thousand soldiers were made slaves by the Turcomans, were lately sent to Astrakhan by the Russian Government of Samarkand, as they had been employed in various works there after their liberation, and as they had managed to save each a little money, the Russian authorities proposed to take over the same and give bills on the treasury of Astrakhan for the equivalent. The Persians agreeing, on their arrival at Astrakhan the Governor advised the Persian Consul of the names and sums to be drawn, requesting him to forward the bills to the local treasury and received the money due to his fellow subjects. The money was accordingly paid to the Persian Consul, who robbed the unfortunate claimants of their earnings, and when they refused to leave the vessels provided to convey them to Astrabad until they had received the sums due to them, threatened to telegraph to Teheran that they were preparing to become Russian subjects. This threat had the desired effect, and the Persians left forthwith, probably fearing its consequences to their relations and friends in their own country.

The opposing candidates in Virginia met in discussion at Warrenton on the 25th instant. Hughes, the Radical candidate for Governor, led off, and was replied to by the Conservative candidate, Gen. Kemper. Mr. Chandler then spoke as the representative of Mr. Ramsdell, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and was replied to by the Conservative candidate for that office, Col. R. W. Withers. A tremendous crowd was present and great enthusiasm prevailed. Messrs. Hughes and Chandler were severely handled by their opponents.

The following is a veritable extract from a letter to his mother of a young New Yorker, who has been spending a month with his uncle at Summit, New Jersey: "The peach trees are too slippery for me to climb; uncle won't let me sail boats in the milk pails; there's no birds' nests around that I can see; Sallie Law spilt molasses on my best pants; a smaller boy than I am, who plays with me, wears a gold chain, and I want to go home."

Governor Seymour has been invited to deliver the address on the occasion of the New York State Fair, and his acceptance of the invitation is announced. The address will be delivered on the 24th of September. The president of the Agricultural Society has likewise requested President Grant to be present during the Fair, and has assurance that he will comply with the request.

While a party of laborers were at work on a bridge across the Red river, at Fulton, Arkansas, on the Cairo and Fulton railroad, on Saturday, an embankment gave way, burying some of the workmen beneath it. Few particulars have been received, but the most reliable accounts state that two men were killed and seven wounded.

MISS JEANIE PATTERSON.—This charming young lady, a universal favorite in Virginia, is rusticating in Charlestown, West Va., and on Friday evening favored the people of that delightful village with one of her choice readings.

MADRID, Aug. 28.—A dispatch from Alcante to day says that the insurgent iron-clad frigates Numancia and Mendez Nunez left Carthagena harbor on Sunday last, and proceeded to the offing to attack the Spanish Republican fleet, under the command of Admiral Lobos. The Government vessels could not be found, and the insurgent squadron returned to Carthagena. The Numancia and Mendez Nunez are now posted at the entrance of the harbor with steam up, ready for immediate action. Vice-Admiral Sir Hastings Yelverton, commander of the British Mediterranean squadron, still retains possession of the Intransigente vessels, Victoria and Alamanza, which were captured off Malaga. The Intransigentes in Carthagena are very resolute and are rendering the place impregnable. Their only danger is from internal discord. The members of the Mediterranean party have requested foreign consuls to obtain amnesty for them from the Madrid Government. Carthagena is completely invested on the land side by the Republican troops under Gen. Martinez Campos. It is reported that a mutinous spirit prevails in the squadron under Admiral Lobos.

FRIDAY.....AUGUST, 29, 1873.

THE NEW NORTH STATE.

This paper waxeth wroth with us because our News Editor, by mere inadvertence, credited a local item concerning the Greensboro Concert to the Patriot, instead of crediting it to the New North State.

Under the head of "Mean, If Deliberate," the latter paper proceeds to say: "If this false credit was made deliberately, it is a meaner thing than to give us no credit at all." It then goes on to give some reasons why the act was deliberate, at the same time acknowledging "that such an error is possible."

Our News Editor assures us that it was altogether inadvertence on his part. After the item was published we called his attention to the error and he intended to correct it, but the matter escaped his memory. He did not dream that he had excited the ire of the New North State by an oversight which is of almost constant occurrence in the columns of a daily newspaper.

Scarcely a week passes that we do not see items from the News credited to some other paper, with items from some other paper credited to the News. Such errors are frequent, especially in the office of a daily.

It is worse than "mean and contemptible" to charge any paper of giving a wrong credit intentionally, whether such charge is made deliberately or not.

If the New North State had called our attention to the oversight and asked for a correction in respectful terms, we should have taken great pleasure in making the amende honorable; but inasmuch as it says "it is difficult to suppose" that that the "mistake was made inadvertently," we must be permitted to express our surprise that a journal claiming respectability and decency, should impute to a cotemporary motives, so utterly discreditable and unworthy. Newspaper courtesy does not recognize the spirit of the New North State's criticism, and the imputation of intentional wrong to the News in this insignificant matter is as silly and unfounded, as the criticism itself is discourteous and ungentlemanly. Those who are so ready to charge others with deliberate injustice are usually evil-minded and corrupt themselves. And when the New North State goes out of its way to impugn our motives, because we happened to credit a local item to the Patriot which was taken from that paper, it furnishes very strong evidence of its own unworthiness and contemptibility.

SOUTHERN ENTERPRISE—COTTON FACTORIES AND INSURANCE.

The cotton factories of Georgia and other Southern States are reaping handsome profits while Northern factories are reported to be in a languishing condition. If every Southern State will imitate the example of Georgia, and build extensive factories of their own, the looms of New England will languish and become idle.

We think the time is near at hand when the the Southern States will make rapid strides in the development of their resources. Capital and immigration are two of our most urgent needs; and capital and immigration will in due course come to us, as our advantages are made known to the world.

Georgia has taken a lead in the South in manufacturing. North Carolina has abundant water-power and every other facility for cotton and other factories. Will not our Legislature, when it assembles in November do something for the encouragement of this branch of industry?

Another feature of Southern enterprise developed since the war is the establishment of reliable and well managed insurance companies, by which millions of dollars are annually kept in circulation in our midst, which would otherwise go to enrich Northern communities. The amount of money invested in the insurance business is wonderful. North Carolina alone pays out several millions every year for premiums.

Northern insurance companies being older, wealthier and better established than those of the South, have received the greater portion of the immense amount that goes to swell the dividends of the policy-holders; but we have reason to believe, that before many years, we will have Southern companies that will prove successful competitors for this vast volume of national currency that has been diverted northward, for the support of insurance companies. As competition is the life of trade, the public will be benefited by the increase of strong and reliable Southern companies, and we think the day is not far distant when the latter will deserve and command the almost undivided patronage of the South.

Butler's candidacy for the Republican nomination of Governor of Massachusetts excites much comment in the Northern press. Even the New York Tribune and Herald are devoting lengthy editorials to a discussion of this transcendant question, which now seems to overshadow Cæsarism.

Butler doubtless enjoys this notoriety and laughs at the noise he is making in the political world.

SENSIBLE AND TRUE.

The Greensboro Patriot, edited by Maj. P. F. Duffy, a Northern man who fought on the Union side, has the following to say in regard to the effort made by some of the Northern newspapers to excite prejudice against the South by misrepresenting the speeches made at the late meeting of the Southern Historical Society.

Maj. Duffy, who has been residing in North Carolina for five or six years, has won the respect, confidence and admiration of those whose good opinions are worth having, by his earnest efforts in behalf of the true interests of the State, in developing her resources, lifting her up from pecuniary embarrassment and poverty, and in establishing honesty and economy in the administration of our State Government. He has cast his fortunes with our people and become one of them, and has by his gentlemanly deportment, integrity and patriotism made many warm friends throughout the State and won an enviable reputation.

Here is what the Patriot says about the tempest in the Northern teapot:

"A few of the Radical papers North are making a silly effort to array prejudice against the 'Southern Historical Association,' recently organized at the White Sulphur Springs, by representing the speeches of some of the leading gentlemen there as 'treasonable,' &c. What nonsense! Do they suppose that the memories of the late struggle can ever be entirely forgotten or ignored? And do they think that ten millions of people will consent to sleep and let their history be written by their enemies? The object of the Association is a good one; it is to preserve the truth of history and hand down to posterity the narrative as told by those who participated in it.

If this be treasonable, the Southern man who would not plead guilty to it would be just a little below a decent man's contempt."

VIRGINIA.

The Virginia canvass has now fairly set in. The first encounter between the opposing candidates resulted in a signal victory for the Conservative candidates.

The campaign is getting "red-hot," and a heavy fire from the Conservative journals and speakers is being poured into the ranks of the enemy all along the lines.

Kemper's election seems to be fully assured, and his friends claim twenty thousand majority.

Hughes' only hope now is, to make a good fight and suffer political martyrdom. This he thinks will secure him a lucrative office in some of the Government departments from the Administration, or what will perhaps be more acceptable to his feelings, an important foreign mission. Hughes will never be Governor of Virginia. That fact appears to be well settled.

The people of Virginia are fully determined to keep the affairs of that proud, noble Commonwealth in the hands of the Conservatives. They see the ruin Radicalism has wrought in other States. They contrast their prosperous condition with that of every State where the mildew of carpet-bagism has been felt, and they have fully resolved to avoid the breakers which have wrecked other communities.

Virginia for Virginians is the cry, and in November the voice of the people will respond, amen!

THE PUBLIC SHOOL SYSTEM OF VIRGINIA.

Virginia is in the hands of the Conservative party. It has the best public school system in the South. Professor Joynes, in the Elmira Convention, exploded the erroneous impressions made by Dr. McCosh's statements concerning the South, by showing what Virginia has done and is now doing for popular education. Professor Joynes' remarks made a most favorable impression at Elmira, and demonstrated conclusively that the President of Princeton College was not at all posted on the subject on which he endeavored to enlighten the North.

Would it not be well for our Legislature to adopt the public school system which prevails in Virginia?

The plan which has been tried in this State has not proved practicable.

It is to be hoped that the truth will be evolved in the discussion of the theory of evolution, which is now going on before the Scientific Association. Prof. Morse is arguing in support of the theory while Prof. Dawson attacks it.

Mrs. Jesse Wright, while alone in her house, near Fairmount, Indiana, and intent on some household cleaning, was stealthily approached by some one, who placed a revolver close to her ear and shot her dead. Chalkley Gardner, a young man living with his parents near by, has been arrested on suspicion of being the murderer, and circumstantial evidence is strong against him, though no motive is assigned for the crime.

The Lower California Company, of which Mr. Benjamin F. Butler, the Massachusetts "claimant" is President, and Mr. John A. Logan, of Illinois, Vice President, has a snug little claim before the Mexican and American Commission at Washington for 20,000,000 acres of land in Sonora under a contract with the Mexican Government for surveys in that State.

Friday was the twenty fifth anniversary of President Grant's wedding, but its rumored celebration as a silver wedding did not take place. The President received one silver present from Mr. Benjamin Field, and he regretted that it was sent, as it was made a subject of gossip.

The Sultan of Zanzibar, it is reported, is going for the benefit of his health to England in September.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, poor appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" some part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal. In it effects perfect cures, leaving the system strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish persons undergo from rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache and earache. How unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the seat of part, or a few drops of it in the cavity of a better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or diseases which require treatment externally, this liniment is everywhere regarded the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is unequaled.

His Honer, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using Dr. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them a very valuable domestic medicine, that I never should be out of stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, and in various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from Headache, and from all the unpleasant symptoms of functional derangement of the digestive organs. As an apperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, of purity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.

We take pleasure in inviting the attention of the

MERCHANTS OF VIR

The Raleigh Daily News.

FRIDAY.....AUGUST 29, 1873.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Greensboro is to have another hotel.

The Guilford Superior Court commences on Monday.

The Methodist Female College at Greensboro has opened.

Mr. Turner Bass, of Halifax county, dropped dead one day last week.

A Grange has been organized at Magnolia with Halstead Bourden as master.

The Good Templars of Ashboro, Randolph county, numbers eighty members.

As a general thing the corn and cotton crops in Union county is very promising.

The cotton in the Durham section has been damaged by rain and cool nights.

The Grand Lodge of the Good Templars of this State meets in Greensboro on the 9th prox.

Willie Williams, of Ringwood, fell from a peach tree the other day and broke his wrist.

A carriage horse belonging to Jno. R. Branch, of Enfield, died on Monday of hydrophobia.

A little son of Mr. Seymour Steele, in Greensboro on Monday last, was badly bitten by a vicious dog.

P. J. Mangum is to be displaced as postmaster of Durham and Dee Mangum is to supercede him.

The concert given in Charlotte on Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum was a great success.

The store of Messrs. Cronoley & Wooster, Wilmington, was entered by burglars on Monday night and a number of articles stolen.

On Saturday night the store of Messrs. Brice & Parker, at Magnolia, was broken into and robbed of $45. A negro by the name of Walter Maxwell was arrested for the crime, and for the want of bail was lodged in jail.

Says the Newbern Times, of the 27th inst:

"The bears are committing depredations of a very destructive character upon the corn fields in the eastern part of Craven and Pamlico counties. We are informed that some of the farmers who have extensive fields of corn in the rich swamp lands, and who expected a large yield, will not harvest enough for their own family use, so great is the destruction by these wild animals. One of these monsters was killed recently at Dawson's Creek, weighing over four hundred pounds, and in his stomach was found more than a peck of corn."

Says the Monroe Enquirer of the 26th instant:

"A singular incident occurred in this place last week. Twenty three years ago Mr. James Fincher was doing some work on the Union Hotel building when he lost some tools—a hand ax and dog-iron. Last Thursday Mr. Fincher was again at work on the same house, and in tearing away some of the boxing he found his tools, when at once the circumstances of his losing them was remembered by him, and he even recognized the tools. That a man, in so unusual a manner, should recover property which he had lost as long ago as twenty-three years, and in doing the same piece of work, is a very singular incident—as singular an one does not happen often."

AN IOWA WOMAN'S PECULIARITIES.—The Davenport (Iowa) Democrat, in noticing the report of the performances of J. R. Brown, lately published in the Chicago newspapers, says that a highly educated and refined lady of that city, Miss. Bleick Peters, possesses the same remarkable powers. Though adverse to exhibiting her particular 'psychic' state, it says she occasionally astonishes her friends by performing the most marvellous feats while in a state of seeming somnambulance, and it is not at all necessary that she should be thrown into a mesmeric trance to elicit those powers. As in the case of the young man from Red Oak, simple contact with the party knowing the secret work to be performed is sufficient. The editor of the Democrat says that he has tested the lady's occult faculty on several occasions. Once in particular he placed his watch in a box, locked the box, and put the key in a third party's pocket; then placed the box in a basket, and, after tying all the hard knots he could invent hid it in an adjacent room, no ore but himself being cognizant of the facts. He then resolved that the lady should discover that watch and place it in her husband's hands. He, without intimating an idea of his desire, merely laid his hand gently upon the lady. She immediately closed her eyes and glided rather than walked to the door of the room, opened it, and went to the table, took up the basket, leisurely untied the knots, took out the box, carried it to the gentleman who had the key, which obtaining, she unlocked the box, took out the watch, and, placing it in the hands of her husband, started at once into the realization of having performed some involuntary act. This lady is susceptible to the influence at all times and from any friendly hand, so that mesmeric power seem to have nothing to do with it. So powerful is the control which her husband has over her intellectual faculties that he can control her actions when out of sight and some distance away. He has been known to sit in the garden while the lady was busied with her household duties, and by a mere act of volition has enforced obedience to his unuttered wishes.

California is being rapidly settled. The Nomads are moving away. The cattle ranchers were the first to go. They were a wild rough band, opposed to churches, schools, newspapers, improved highways, and cultivtaed fields. They have given it at last, and, one by one, New Mexico, Texas or Arizona has received them. "The Pike" is growing beautifully less, until, with the Indian he resembles in his imigatory habit, he will be seen no more. The moving Nomads and the vast array of unclassified frontiers-men, who have no fixed abode, have thinned out too, and California is beginning to congratulate herself as getting over her transition state, and almost as without salient characteristics in her population as her Eastern sisters.

AN INDIANA DWARF.—The Danville Indianian says that it has interviewed recently a girl 19 years of age, thirty-six and a half inches high, and weighing about forty-five pounds, the daughter of Mrs. Washington Riggin, who resides equidistant from Jamestown, New Elizabeth and North Salem, in Eel River township. She was large as an average baby when born, but, owing to sickness, ceased growing when about three years of age. Her hair, dark and silken, is twenty-five inches long. She is inclined to be lubberly, though her bashfulness may account for that to some extent. She never went to school, and because of her unfortunate condition has been petted and treated as a baby from infancy. Her features are coarse and countenance frowning, denoting an entire absence of intellectual culture, though she is by no means an idiot. Being always addressed in infantile vernacular at home, it is no wonder she talks babyish. She has a sister who will weigh four times as much as herself. She was born in Hendricks county, and her parents are natives of Kentucky.

IMMIGRATION TO NORTH CAROLINA.—Referring to the influx of immigrants into Virginia a North Carolina paper puts in a timely word in regard to the inducements held out to immigrants to gather upon the broad plantations of the "Old North State." And what may be said of North Carolina in this respect may be said of nearly every other Southern State—namely, that they comprise the best field for industrious men, especially those of the agricultural class, to settle in in the country. The "voice of the croaker" is now only occasionally heard in the South, and the advent of the hardy immigrant from all parts of the world is hailed with satisfaction by sensible people everywhere. Without disparaging the advantages offered to the immigrant who seeks a permanent home in the wintry West, it is but just to speak of the inducements offered to those who desire to settle under the more genial skies of the sunny South.—New York Herald.

MOSBY'S RAID.—We have heretofore referred to Colonel Mosby's capture of a dozen or more government offices for his gallant guerilleros as one of the best jokes of the season, seeing that the Radical admiration is in grave doubt at present as to what it should do with these officials. It doesn't want to keep them, and is afraid to dismiss them. The Chronicle of yesterday has this screed upon the subject:

"How like a guerilla chief it was to dash into a political party, secure a number of good positions for his friends, and then dash out again. It is now stated that Mosby will give his influence to Kemper, the Conservative candidate for Governor of Virginia. Is this bushwhacker to be allowed to do as he pleases in both political parties?"—Petersburg Index and Appeal, 27th inst.

A new swindling dodge was successfully played on several Salem banks, recently. Two men asked the teller of a bank to change a $100 bill for five $20 bills. These they at once put into an envelope, and then, drawing out another similar envelope with only four $20 bills in it, pretended there had been a mistake in the counting. They succeeded several times in getting the additional bill, but were finally detected and brought to grief.

Texas vigilance committees ride up to a house and shout, "Is Smith in?" Mrs. Smith comes to the door and replies in the negative, when the leader continues, "I knew he wasn't; he's hanging to a blackjack over thar!" Then Mrs. Smith goes in, gathers her boys on her knee, and tells them how hard it is to steal a horse in Texas and escape punishment.

As Mr. Walter Gibson, the proprietor of the Harlet (N. Y.) Local, was entering his office last Friday an unknown person flung a tin cup full of vitrol or muriatic acid full in his face, probably destroying the sight of one if not of both eyes. The perpetrator of the deed jumped into a buggy standing near in the charge of a confederate, and disappeared. Revenge for personal attacks by Mr. Gibson in his new paper is supposed to have prompted the attack.

The great-grandfather, grand-father and uncle of Miss Jennie Burnham, who was drowned in Grand Bay, at New market, N. H., were drowned in the same bay, within a mile of where the body was found.

Mis Seavey, of Belmont, N. H., aged 60 years, died on Thursday, of voluntary starvation, having refused food for twenty-eight days. A sister of the deceased died in the same way a few years since.

A Wabash (Ind) editor returns thanks for a centipede sent him by mail, it being the first cent he had seen for a long time.

A Kentucky man has named his sixteenth child, recently born to him, Omega, hoping it will be the last.

DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMPS

KITCHEN BROS.,

(Successors to CAROLINA PUMP COMPANY, LOCATED IN RALEIGH,)

Are prepared to furnish at short notice the Kitchen Pumps of various sizes with Porcelain Cylinders which can't injure the water. This is a submerged deep well pump, now in use 2½ years, without the expense of new packing. We make all sizes, capacity 30 to 150 gallons water per minute, working in every conceivable way and by the use of hose which can be attached in half a minute, these pumps at once become a hand engine of great power, throwing water on the roof of three story buildings, with one hand, and they will stand four to six men safely. We have not heard of one of them being overcome by fire, and yet they have been tested by over fifty fires, saving over $500,000 worth of property. For ordinary use children work them easily if set up by our printed directions, and if so set we warrant them 12 months. Our Double Suction and Force Globe Pumps, also invented by J. L. Kitchen is capable of being used as a Drive well pump and is well adapted to steamers and vessels of any class; one man can throw water on the roof of 3 story buildings. But it has a double ended lever and with four men is a very superior hand engine. The No. 2 Globe Pump is 12 inches in Diameter with 1½ suction and 1¼ discharge pipe and throws 40 to 100 gallons per minute, according to speed. The No. 3 Globe, 7 inches in diameter, 1 inch suction and ¾ of an inch of discharge pipe, capable of 25 to 30 gallons per minute. These Globe Pumps we make of cast iron for common use, brass for salt water and block tin for the inside of houses for drinking water, they lift the water 25 feet perpendicular, and you can set it in the house and draw water from springs or wells at great distances.

All kinds of steam and water pipes fitted at short notice; hose, hose-pipe and couplings furnished here, &c.

Send for price list. The entire depth of wells with good references must accompany all orders.

Some few of these pumps have not given satisfaction but in each case it has been attributable to the maker and not the principle of the pump. We are now employing the best mechanics only, and are determined to have none other.

Address KITCHEN BROS.,

GREENVILLE, N. C., April 19, 1872.

MR. J. L. KITCHEN—The pump you put in my well which is thirty-two feet deep, I have been using nearly two years; it has proven entirely satisfactory, and by attaching a hose which I got of you it becomes a local fire engine of invaluable service. For ordinary domestic purposes, the pump can be used by small children.

TARBORO, N. C., Feb. 7, 1873.

JOHN L. KITCHEN, Esq.—

Dear Sir—I have had one of your Force Pumps in use for two years, and it has proved in every respect as you represented it and I would not be without it for twice the cost of it.

Yours respectfully,

R. A. WATSON.

GREENVILLE, April 19, 1872.

MR. J. L. KITCHEN—

Sir—I have been using one of your pumps driven from my steam engine, for supplying my tanks. I have used it continually for two years, and can confidently recommend it for any purpose where water is required. The pump is so constructed that it will last without getting out of order for years, and I have heard no complaint from any of your many pumps used in this locality for yard well pumps.

WM. S. BROADDUS.

John C. Gorman and W. C. Stronach, of Raleigh, give certificates stating that they have had the pump in use one and two years, are perfectly satisfied with it, and it has not cost them one cent for repairs.

Messrs. Wilson and Waddell, at Wilson's Mills, on the North Carolina Railroad, write that the No. 2 Globe Pump, with 150 feet of 1¼ inch hose, purchased from the Messrs. Kitchen to protect their mills and sash and blind factory against fire, is the best pump they have ever seen. They will buy another as soon as it can be made, for another well. Several parties have examined their pump and will buy others like them. aug 8-DaWtt

THE CLOVER BLOSSOM.

Oh, for thyself, thou fragrant clover,
I would indite a song,
And for a thousand thoughts that over
My memory throng.
As, in these fields a rover,
I seek thee long.

Thus forth upon a dewy morning
What brighter face than thine?
What charm thy neighbors most adorning
Makes them more shine
Than thou, who outward beauty scorning,
Within art fine?

The perfect grace of perfect nature
Thou surely dost possess—
Subordinate in every feature
Of prettiness,
Yet harmony with every creature
Thou dost express.

Simplicity and careless neatness—
What better thing remains,
To show the uttermost completeness
Which in thee reigns,
Than this, the clear, deep-hearted sweetness
That fills thy veins?

Oh, that man's graces dwelt thus dumbly,
Not speaking their own praise!
Oh, that our inner lives were comely
Through all our days!
So might our graces seem less homely
On God's highways.

Be thou, sweet clover blossom, field-preacher
Always to mine and me,
Not by thy words, but by each feature,
Thus modestly
And I'll persuade the wisest teacher
To come to thee.

The Shah in Vienna.

A detachment of Persian servants had arrived some hours before, with ten wagon loads of luggage, and the palace had already been turned over to their tender mercies. It is said that when the Emperor walked through the suites of rooms intended for the Shah and his officers, he found the mattresses, pillows and rich silk spreads strewn on the floors and being trampled on by the servants, who had also tore up the carpets and were about to put down others brought from Persia. Gazing on this ruin, the Emperor exclaimed to his Adjutant, "My poor rooms! Will Laxenburg ever be the same as it was before?" As for the Shah, he made haste to get his dinner. A lamb was slaughtered in the palace, according to the Persian custom, and immediately roasted. Ten Persian dignitaries sat down at the table with him, and were much better bred than their master, for they used the knives and forks and napkins, while he ate with his fingers, and wiped his hands on the table cloth. After dinner he went straight to bed, in a peculiar affair which had been sent on in advance and set up in a room looking out on the gardens and park. We begin already to hear reports of the bad manners of the Shah and the vandalism of his attendants. It is said that he ruined the costly curtains of the luxurious imperial car in which he came from Satzburg by wiping his greasy fingers upon them after eating, and that the carpet is covered with disgusting stains. Nearly all the portable articles of luxury in the carriages of the Persian grandees are reported to be missing, and a certain silver article placed in the Shah's coupe for his special and private use cannot be found.—Cor. N. Y. Tribune.

KATE STODDARD AND THE GOODRICH MURDER.—The New York Tribune of Saturday says:

"The concession purporting to have been made by Kate Stoddard, of the murder of Goodrich, was entirely false, and was published by the Brooklyn police to throw people outside, and especially the man Roscoe, off the scent It calls attention again to the discrepancies heretofore noted between the facts as stated in this 'confession,' and as actually ascertained. It says that Kate really charged Roscoe with having committed the murder, but that the police did not want this fact published lest he should take the alarm. It is now believed that Roscoe and Goodrich quarreled in Kate's presence, when the former shot the latter and then fled, but that Kate remained 'crooning' over the body until morning, when she went away, taking Roscoe's pistol with her and leaving Goodrich's. The recent removal of Chief Campbell, of the Brooklyn police, is said to have been partly due to an alleged inefficiency in this case."

A negro gave his idea of faith in God's promises in the following words: "Dar is a brick wall, and the Lord he stand dar and say to me: 'Now I want you to go troo dat.' I ain't agoin' to say, Lord, I can't. I got nuffin to do about it. All I have to do is to butt against it, and it's de Lord's business to put me troo."

The vogue into which Paris green and flour has lately come as a cotton caterpillar destroyer has developed a suit in the United States District Court of Alabama for infringement of a patent. More than a ton of Paris green was lately sold at Selma in one day for this use.

The Cincinnati Commercial regards the removal of the statue of Jefferson from its position at the rear of the White House as the most suspicious evidence it has yet seen of Grant's purpose to establish Cæsarism in the United States.
